Cowabunga! The Year of Herefords, Surfers and Sand!

Cowabunga dudes and dudettes!

The OC Fair is saluting the famous Western movie star, the spotted Hereford cow, and the laid-back attitude of the surfing culture that rules Southern California's sandy beaches. Saddle up and ride the waves of fun at these special-for-2007 Fair events:

OC Fair Cattle Drive — Friday, July 27, 10:30 a.m. — Noon

Urban cowboys and cowgirls will saddle up and take to the streets of Costa Mesa as they lead 300 Corriente steers to the OC Fair. Take a seat along the route and enjoy the outrageous scene. (See the inside front cover for more information.)

Sand Animation Master — Plaza Arts Stage, 8:15 p.m. and 10 p.m.

"To see the world in a grain of sand..." — William Blake

In his first public U.S. appearance, Ferenc Cako of Hungary, magically transforms grains of sand into visual masterpieces against the backdrop of some of the world's most renowned classical compositions.

Ultimate Sand Sculpture — Daily in Fair Square

What happens when there are over 1,000 tons of sand and water, and unlimited amounts of creativity? The coolest sand sculpture this far from the beach, that's what. Watch professional sculptors turn sand into works of art. Sponsored by Irvine Company Apartment Communities.

Moo-llennium Barn — Centennial Farm

It's a cow's year at the OC Fair! Check out hands-on exhibits and demonstrations about cattle and the cattle industry, including milking demonstrations and leather crafting workshops. And just outside the large barn doors is Centennial Farm, the Fair's own year-round, four-acre demonstration farm full of livestock, crops and fun.

Avenue of Breeding Beef — Livestock Area near Yellow Gate

After you count the number of spots on the Fair's guests of honor, Hereford cattle, check out the tons of other livestock animals on display in the Livestock Area.

Surf Bands — Main Mall Stage

Rock out to the sounds of surf bands nightly. Featured bands will include Glasgow Tiki Shakers, The Boardwalkers, The Mai Tais, The Fabulous Planktones, Nocturnes, Reventlos, Outer Wave, The Relix, The Breakaways, Surf Kings and The George Fryer Combo.

Cowabunga Beach

The littlest fairgoers can become sand artists or just sandy creatures in the Giant Sand Box, a free oversized playground of sand. Lifeguards are on duty and sand toys are well-stocked every day.

Also for Cowabunga Beach, the OC Fair has teamed up with the Association of Surfing Professionals of North America to bring the rulers of the waves to the Fair. Free autographing sessions with U.S. Open surfers on July 15 and 24, and August 4 from 2-3 p.m.

COWABUNGA!

A to Z Guide

A is for Animals

...the most unusual ones you'll ever pet. Visit the petting zoos, located near Green Gate and Yellow Gate.
Avenue of Breeding Beef: Learn about the myriad bovine breeds. Livestock Area.

B is for Baking Competition

Famous Amos ain't got nothin' on the amateurs of the OC! Come see why homemade beats store-bought any day.
Home Arts & Crafts Gallery: competitions and demonstrations scheduled daily.
Beer Brewing: The OC Fair Homemade Beer Competition showcases winners in 13 divisions, plus two divisions for beer labels. Stop by for information on home brewing. The Courtyard, at the west end of the Visual Arts Gallery.

C is for Cowabunga!

Hey beach bunnies and moon doggies, summer is here—so surf on over and catch a few rays! This year, we're celebrating Herefords, Surfers and Sand with an eclectic array of non-stop music and entertainment, carnival rides, arts and crafts, tasty foods and fun for the whole family.

Centennial Farm: A four-acre demonstration farm, with growing crops, exotic fruit trees, gourd vines, and a variety of barnyard animals. Learn the beautiful skill of pressed flowers at the Pressed Flower Art exhibit in the Silo Building daily.

The Courtyard: Taste winners of the 2007 Orange County Fair Commercial Wine Competition, and learn about winemaking and home beer brewing. At the west end of the Visual Arts Gallery. Sponsored by Ralphs.

Crafters Village: Just south of Park Plaza, a quaint, woodsy neighborhood where artisans gather to showcase and sell their hand-crafted wares. Demonstrations held daily.

D is for Dairy Goats

What does it take to win gold at the OC Fair...if you're a dairy goat? Find out, as members of 4-H and Future Farmers of America display their animals throughout the 21 days of Fair. Visit them in the Livestock Area near Yellow Gate.

E is for Exhibits

It's the heart of the Fair, where talented O.C. natives enter competitions showcased continually in the Floral Pavilion and the Home Arts & Crafts, Visual Arts and Youth-in-Motion galleries. Demonstrations held daily.

F is for Fine Arts

Watercolors, oils, photography, sculpture and furniture-making. We're doing it Orange County-style—and you can see it on display at the Visual Arts Gallery. Demonstrations held daily.

Fair Square: Your introduction to the 2007 OC Fair, featuring Hussong's Cantina and the Ultimate Sand Sculpture. Inside Blue Gate.

Floral Pavilion: Grow it and show it here. Competitions held for largest, best and most unusual homegrown crops. Gardening seminars and demonstrations held daily. In Centennial Farm.

Food! Funnel cake, turkey leg, bloomin' onions, barbecued briskets, roasted corn and cotton candy.

Footsie Wootsie: For only a quarter, invigorate those tired feet.

G is for Glass Blower

Charlie Keeling returns with his ton-and-a-half furnace producing enough BTUs to heat up glass material to 2,100 degrees Fahrenheit. Crafters Village. Demonstrations held several times daily.

H is for Hypnotist Mark Yuzuik

Your mission, should you choose to accept it, is to be the star of this show. It's true: audience members join in the fun with hypnotist Mark Yuzuik, who has an exceptional talent for bringing out the best (or at least the most entertaining) in everyone. Shows nightly at Main Mall Stage.

Herefords: These whiteface bovines are renowned for their efficiency at converting grass and grain into milk at an astounding rate. They're the spotlight of the 2007 OC Fair, and you can see them at Centennial Farm and Livestock.

Hussong's Cantina: Stop by for some refreshment and a front row seat for summer people watching. Fair Square.

I is for Ice Cream

National Ice Cream Day is Sunday, July 15—but during the Fair, feel free to indulge anytime. Get your fill at vendors throughout the Fair.

J is for Jugglers

Always a Fair favorite. In Cowabunga Beach daily. Check the Daily Events Listings for performance times.

K is for Kiddie Carnival

Kinder, gentler rides and labyrinth attractions, especially for the younger set. Near Green Gate.

L is for Lucha Libre

The stars of Mexican freestyle wrestling come to the OC Register Arena July 28-29.

Livestock: Members of 4-H and Future Farmers of America display their animals throughout the 21 days of Fair. Visit them in the Livestock Area. Competitions held daily.

M is for Moo-llennium Barn

Donated by the Centennial Farm Foundation in 2000, the Millennium Barn (renamed this year to honor the theme) is the OC Fair & Exposition Center's showcase for Orange County's agrarian traditions. See milking demonstrations three times daily and enjoy hands-on exhibits and demonstrations daily.

Main Mall Stage: Sit here and be entertained all day and all night. Jugglers, dancers, music, and more. Check the Daily Events Listings for details. In Main Mall. Sponsored by AT&T.

N is for Newborns

They're just so darn cute, these special little critters. See them as they make their debut and give them a warm OC Fair welcome! Maternity Barn in the Livestock Area.

O is for OC Register Arena

There's high-energy entertainment every day of the Fair at the OC Register Arena. From O.C. fave "Weird Al" to the motorized madness of Speedway and "Orange Crush" Demolition Derby and the zany antics of AGA-BOOM!—Theatre of physical comedy and circus arts. Shows are FREE with Fair admission. See the OC Register Arena schedule on page 51.

Orange County Building: Service organizations from Orange County offer educational materials to the public.

P is for Peking Acrobats

Hailing from China, these gymnasts, jugglers, cyclists and tumblers transform 2000-year-old athletic disciplines into an all-ages kaleidoscope of entertainment and wonder. Plaza Arts Stage nightly.

Pacific Amphitheatre: Don't miss top acts, including Willie Nelson, Lynyrd Skynyrd, Martina McBride, Heart, and She Wants Revenge, as part of the 21-night Lexus Summer Concert Series. Additional admission required.

Plaza Arts Stage: It's a nonstop party with the Peking Acrobats and Sand Animation Master Ferenc Cako at Plaza Arts Stage nightly, as well as community entertainment all day. Sponsored by Time Warner Cable.

Petting Zoos: Enjoy a close encounter with a four-legged furry friend at two petting zoos, near Green Gate and Yellow Gate.

Q is for Quilting

Just how many stitches can fit per inch? Check out this time-honored tradition of creating art from scraps in the Home Arts & Crafts Gallery, sponsored by Health Craft & Royal Prestige.

R is for Racing Pigs

We love these little porkers, the soaring swine who amaze us with their fast footwork. Come cheer on your favorite! Livestock Area. Sponsored by Ralphs. Check the Daily Events Listings for specific times.

Russell Brothers Circus: Acts of strength and balance, magic, juggling and more, in a family-oriented format. Russell Brothers Circus also trains young fairgoers in the art of the circus, then presents their talent onstage in "Let's Play Circus" near Green Gate.

S is for Sand Animation Master

It's truly magical. In his first U.S. appearance, Ferenc Cako of Hungary, magically transforms grains of sand into visual masterpieces nightly at 8:15 p.m. and 10 p.m. at Plaza Arts Stage.

Shopping! Here's your chance to score that Ginsu Knife you've always dreamed of, as well as other hard-to-find items "not sold in stores." Shop your heart out at the Parade of Products, Carnival of Products and throughout the Fair.

Sky Ride: Ride high above the crowds, between Ralphs Family Fair Way and the Main Carnival. Ride passes can be purchased at RCS ticket booths.

Small Animal Tent: Poultry, mice, rats, rabbits, and more. Don't miss the riveting action of the Egg-laying Competition. In the Livestock Area.

Surfers and Sand: They are the focus of the 2007 OC Fair, 'cause here in the O.C., we have some of the best on earth. Come celebrate summer with us! Free autographing sessions with U.S. open surfers on July 15 and 24, and August 4 from 2 to 3 p.m. in Cowabunga Beach.

T is for Thrills

Acres of thrills and games, featuring the 164-foot-high La Grande Wheel, Euroslide and other rides to twist, turn and flip fairgoers. Tuesdays and Wednesdays: $20 unlimited ride wristbands. Thursdays and Fridays: all rides are $1. For both promotions, purchase before 5 p.m.; ride until 8 p.m.

U is for Ultimate Sand Sculpture

Watch some of the best professional sand sculptors in the nation transform 1,000 tons of sand and water into a masterpiece saluting Herefords, Surfers and Sand. In Fair Square daily. Sponsored by Irvine Company Apartment Communities.

V is for Viva El Mariachi

It's a celebration of the music, dancing and culture of Mexico with Viva El Mariachi with Mariachi King Jose Hernandez and his Mariachi Sol de Mexico. Sunday, July 22, in the OC Register Arena.

Vermiculture: When earthworms get together, the result is rich, bountiful compost. See how it's done in the vermiculture display, outside the Silo Building in Centennial Farm.

Visual Arts: Watercolors, oils, photography, sculpture and furniture-making. We're doing it Orange County-style—and you can see it on display at the Visual Arts Gallery. Demonstrations held daily.

W is for "Weird Al"

"Straight Outta Lynwood," the latest from OC Fair favorite "Weird Al" Yankovic, debuted at No. 10 on the Billboard album chart, giving Al his very first Top 10 album ever! In the OC Register Arena from July 17-21.

X is for Xtreme Freestyle Motocross Jumping Invitational

See them fly through the air and land upright (except when they don't). At the OC Register Arena on July 14.

Y is for Youth-in-Motion Gallery

It gives one hope to stroll through the OC Fair's Youth-in-Motion Gallery. THIS is what our young people are up to these days: arts and crafts, video and science projects, model-making, computer programming, and more. Competitions and entertainment daily.

Z is for zzzzz

Free Daily Entertainment

Sand Animation Master

Plaza Arts Stage – 8:15 p.m. and 10 p.m.

Sponsored by: Time Warner Cable

"To see the world in a grain of sand..."

— William Blake

In his first public U.S. appearance, Ferenc Cako of Hungary, magically transforms grains of sand into visual masterpieces against the backdrop of some of the world's most renowned classical compositions.

Peking Acrobats

Plaza Arts Stage – 5 p.m., 7 p.m. and 9 p.m.

Sponsored by: Time Warner Cable

Marvel at the mystifying act of Chinese acrobatics, comedy and physical feats. The international troupe returns to entertain Fair audiences with their blend of grace and precision as they tumble, flip, jump, juggle, and contort their bodies.

Ultimate Sand Sculpture

Fair Square

What happens when there are over 1,000 tons of sand and water, and unlimited amounts of creativity? The coolest sand sculpture this far from the beach, that's what. Watch professional sculptors turn sand into works of art. Sponsored by Irvine Company Apartment Communities.
